

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Stephen Harmon,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13760

Order

Motion to Allow Overlength Brief and to Annotate Documents

Date of Order: 3/25/2021

Trial Court Case No. 4FA-13-02849CI, 4FA-92-02481CR

Stephen Harmon represents himself in this appeal. He has asked this Court to accept his opening brief despite it being 19 pages overlength. He also has filed a motion requesting that the Clerk's Office annotate the documents in his excerpt of record with the Bates numbers from the electronic record. Harmon explains that he makes this request because the electronic record was supplemented, but the new documents were not scanned and provided to Harmon before he submitted his brief and his excerpt.

These requests are GRANTED. The Appellant's opening brief is accepted as filed, and the Clerk's Office has already annotated the documents in Harmon's excerpt of record with the Bates numbers from the electronic record.

That said, however, when adding the Bates numbers, the Clerk's Office noticed that one of the documents that Harmon included in his excerpt of record was not included in the electronic record. This document is a single page, and is a copy of an envelope postmarked 20 January 2021 that Harmon has labeled as "Letter C, page 3 of 3." The other two pages of this three-page document are in the electronic record. After reviewing this document, this Court sua sponte directs the Alaska Court Records Office to add the single-page document described in this paragraph to the electronic record. Once this document is added to the electronic record, the Clerk's Office is directed to annotate the document with the Bates number. After this task is completed, the Clerk's Office shall print and distribute Harmon's excerpt of record to the State and to the Court.
